Investigation:

R/D was assigned by Det. Sgt. O'Donnell to respond to the above address for an investigation to a Domestic Battery / Aggravated Assault / Barricaded Subject. R/D arrived on scene at approx. 1745hrs. R/D was advised via radio that Glenview Fire was administering first aid to Arturas KOLGOVAS and that he was being transported to Lutheran General Hospital.

On 24Jan10 at approx. 1945hrs, R/D and Det. Sgt. Velez spoke with Eve KOLGOVAITE at 3221 Parkway Blvd. Eve related the following in summary and not verbatim: She was currently living with her father Arturas at his residence. Arturas had been drinking alcohol all week (since 17Jan10). Every 4-6 months he drinks alcohol heavily for a week at a time, and he did nothing else but drink alcohol. [REDACTED] When he drinks like this, his current wife Trisha HINOJAS does not let him live with her at her residence so he stays at a condominium he owns-3221 Parkway Blvd. #31D, Northbrook Il. 60062 (Northfield Twsp). No one else likes to deal with him while he is drinking, so she stays at his condominium with him. On 24Jan10, he opened a can of beer and it spilled. He became angry and told her to give him another beer. She refused and he threw the can of beer at her striking her in the back. She then ran into the bedroom and closed the door. He began kicking and punching the door while yelling at her. She then called the police. He got the door open and she hung up the phone due to the fact he does not like the police and she didn't want him to know who she was calling. He then cornered her in the bedroom and continued yelling at her. He also stated "it's time for you to let me go". He then went into the closet looking for something, and she ran out of the bedroom and out of the residence. Arturas had never acted like he was towards her before, and she was scared for her life. She then met with responding officers in front of the residence. She advised the responding officers of what occurred.

Investigation:

On 24Jan10 at approx. 2015hrs R/D spoke with P.O. Prohaska at 3221 Parkway Blvd. P.O. Prohaska related the following in summary and not verbatim: He was responding to 3221 Parkway Blvd. Northbrook Il. 60062 (Northfield Twsp) to assist P.O. Macugowski for a call of a Check for Well Being / Domestic Trouble. A female, now known as Eve KOLGOVAITE, called 911 and she said she needed the police and then the phone hung up. While in route to the address, he was also advised by Cook County Communications that a previous call for that address shows the offender Arturas [REDACTED] and that he will fight the police. He arrived on scene with P.O. Macugowski. They met with Eve in the main foyer. Eve, who was not wearing shoes or socks and was using a blanket to cover herself, related essentially the same facts she later related to R/D. P.O. Macugowski and P.O. Prohaska, dressed in full CCSPD uniform, walked up the stairway and approached the door to Arturas's residence. He knocked on the door and Arturas opened the door approx. 4 inches and it would not open any more due to the security latch on the door. He observed Arturas standing inside the residence behind the door in the opening, holding a samurai type sword in his hands, and he was yelling at them. Arturas then attempted to stab him with the sword by lunging the sword through the opening towards him. He immediately jumped back fearing Arturas was going to stab him with the sword and drew his handgun from his holster. He advised Arturas numerous times to drop the sword, which he did not. P.O. Macugowski, who was now on the stairway, advised Arturas he was going to spray him with O.C. spray. Arturas closed and locked the door. P.O. Macugowski advised Cook County Communications they now had a barricaded subject. P.O. Rivlin and P.O. Valdez arrived on scene. He secured the area; P.O. Rivlin entered the building and attempted to speak with Arturas through the closed door. He heard Arturas tell P.O. Rivlin that if someone enters, someone will die. The building was then evacuated of other residents of the building, the area was secured, and CCSPD Hostage Barricade Team was notified.

On 24Jan10 at approx. 2045hrs R/D spoke with P.O. Macugowski at 3221 Parkway Blvd. P.O. Macagowski related the following in summary and not verbatim: He was responding to 3221 Parkway Blvd. Northbrook Il. 60062 (Northfield Twsp) for a call of a Check for Well Being / Domestic Trouble. He observed Arturas standing inside the residence behind the door in the opening. As they attempted to speak with Arturas, Arturas began yelling that he would defend his home to the end. Arturas then attempted to stab him and P.O. Prohaska by lunging a samurai type sword through the opening towards him and P.O. Prohaska numerous times. He immediately retreated to the stairs, which was out of harms way at the time. P.O. Prohaska immediately retreated to a safe distance and drew his firearm from his holster. He told Arturas numerous times to drop the sword. He then advised Arturas he would be sprayed with O.C. Arturas continued yelling at him and P.O. Prohaska and then closed the door. He heard the deadbolt on the door lock. He then notified Cook County Communications that Arturas barricaded himself in the apartment. Lt. Perciabosco, Sgt. Hannigan, P.O. Rivlin, and P.O. Valdez arrived on scene. The building was then evacuated of other residents by CCSPD personnel.

Synopsis:

On January 24, 2010, Cook County Sheriff's Police Department (CCSPD) Lt. Rafferty requested the assistance of the Illinois State Police (ISP) Public Integrity Task Force (PITF) to investigate the officer-involved shooting of ARTURAS KOLGOVAS (M/W, DOB [REDACTED]) by a CCSPD officer.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Cook County Sheriff's Police Department (CCSPD) uniformed officers responded to a domestic disturbance at an apartment complex at 3221 W. Parkway Drive, Northbrook, Illinois. CCSPD made contact with KOLGOVAS who was inside his apartment and refused to open the door to police. During KOLGOVAS' initial contact with police, KOLGOVAS made threatening statements and briefly opened the door. KOLGOVAS produced a large sword, and closed the door. CCSPD officers evacuated the apartment building and requested assistance.

Assisting CCSPD officers and Glenview Police Department (GPD) officers arrived on scene. Officers Rivlin (CCSPD), Valdez (CCSPD), Contreras (CCSPD), Eastman (GPD), and Cholewinski (GPD) subsequently entered the apartment foyer and made contact with KOLGOVAS. Officers attempted to negotiate with KOLGOVAS and requested the assistance of CCSPD Hostage Barricade Team (HBT). During negotiations, KOLGOVAS abruptly opened his door and lifted his sword toward Officer Rivlin (CCSPD) who was near KOLGOVAS' door. In fear of their lives, Officer Rivlin (CCSPD) discharged his taser and Officer Contreras (CCSPD) discharged his rifle at KOLGOVAS simultaneously. KOLGOVAS was subsequently shot. Any and all items of evidentiary value to this PITF investigation were processed per ISP policy.

PITF investigators canvassed the area for independent witnesses and video surveillance cameras that could have recorded the above incident. Video surveillance in the area was not located. Independent witnesses were located and interviewed. All the resulting statements coincided in all details.

KOLGOVAS was transported to Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge where he was treated and subsequently pronounced dead by Dr. Nikolich. KOLGOVAS' body was transported to the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office and according to Dr. Filkins, KOLGOVAS died from a single gunshot wound to the chest. The manner of death was ruled as a homicide. PITF investigators interviewed witnesses and all accounts coincided and were verified.

On Sunday, January 24, 2010, there was a radio call of a barricaded suicidal subject at the above address. UGARTE heard the beat officer state on the radio that the subject, later identified as Kolgovas, had a sword. UGARTE then began to make his way to the location from Leyden Township. UGARTE could not remember the time of the call.

Upon arrival, UGARTE observed a Golf Police Officer seeking cover behind a vehicle in the parking lot of the above address. UGARTE then entered the lobby area of the building. Also on scene were CCSPD Sgt. Hannigan, CCSPD Hostage Barricade Team (HBT) Officer Rivlin, CCSPD Officer Valdez, CCSPD HBT Officer Contreras, and two Glenview Police Department Officers. According to UGARTE, Rivlin and Contreras, along with Valdez and the two Glenview Police Officers positioned themselves on the stairwell landing at the bottom of the flight of stairs leading directly up to the floor of Kolgovas's condo unit. UGARTE stated that Valdez was holding a ballistic shield, Rivlin and Contreras both had rifles, and the Glenview Officers had a rifle and a shield. UGARTE and Sgt. Hannigan were positioned on the stairwell landing just below the other officers. UGARTE stated that he and Sgt. Hannigan could not see Kolgovas's condo unit, nor did they have a view of Kolgovas. UGARTE related that he heard Rivlin yell out to Kolgovas to come out of his condo and talk to the officers. UGARTE stated he heard Kolgovas shout out something, but he could not understand what Kolgovas said because Kolgovas was inside his condo with the door closed. Then UGARTE heard Rivlin shout out, "Drop the sword!" UGARTE heard Rivlin tell Contreras, "I'll use the Taser, you go lethal." UGARTE then heard Rivlin shout out again "Drop the sword." According to UGARTE, Rivlin shouted this three or four times. UGARTE then heard a "big bang." At that point, UGARTE and Sgt. Hannigan went up the stairs

Purpose

To document the interview of Officer Roger Valdez #258

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Cook County Sheriff's Police Department (CCSPD) responded to a domestic disturbance that escalated to a barricaded subject inside an apartment at 3221 Parkway Drive, Northbrook, Illinois. During the police's confrontation with the subject, later identified as ARTURAS KOLGOVAS (M/W, DOB: [REDACTED]) a CCSPD officer discharged his weapon and shot KOLGOVAS. CCSPD Lt. Rafferty requested the assistance of the Illinois State Police (ISP) Public Integrity Task Force (PITF) in the officer-involved shooting investigation.

On January 28, 2010, at approximately 12:40pm, Reporting Agents (R/A) Surz and Montes interviewed CCSPD Officer Roger Valdez #258 at ISP District Chicago Headquarters located at 9511 W. Harrison, Des Plaines, Illinois. Present were R/As, VALDEZ and VALDEZ's legal representative Laura Scarry. VALDEZ stated the following in summary and not verbatim.

VALDEZ has been a police officer for approximately 7 years and is currently assigned to the CCSPD Gang Crime Narcotics Team.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00pm, VALDEZ was at CCSPD sub-post located at 9511 W. Harrison with his partner Larry Rivlin. VALDEZ heard Rivlin speaking to a dispatcher regarding a domestic violence call at 12 Oaks Apartment Complex in unincorporated Northbrook, Illinois. VALDEZ learned from Rivlin that the male subject may be armed with a sword. Rivlin then drove VALDEZ to the scene. While en route, VALDEZ heard over his police radio that the male subject may be armed with a gun.

Upon arrival, VALDEZ saw CCSPD units as well as Glenview Police Department (GPD) officers on scene in front of the apartment building. Rivlin parked their squad and the two put on their bullet proof vests. VALDEZ and Rivlin were dressed in plain clothes, however their police stars were visible and their vests had police symbols on them. As VALDEZ and Rivlin entered the apartment building, VALDEZ took one of the GPD officer's ballistic shields for protection. The outer door was opened for them by a female, that VALDEZ learned was the daughter of the male subject.

VALDEZ and Rivlin walked up the stairs and approached the apartment in question. VALDEZ shared the ballistic shield with Rivlin, who was behind him on the stairs, adjacent to the apartment. Rivlin knocked on the door and announced his office. VALDEZ heard a male voice, later identified as KOLGOVAS, from the other side of the door yell, "fuck you." Rivlin again made an attempt to engage in conversation with KOLGOVAS to no avail. VALDEZ then went downstairs and spoke to KOLGOVAS' daughter, Eve. VALDEZ obtained KOLGOVAS' cell phone from her and returned upstairs and gave the phone to Rivlin. Rivlin placed the cell phone outside of the door and asked KOLGOVAS to open the door and take the phone. KOLGOVAS said, "fuck you, I am going to kill you, and then kill my self." Rivlin then went downstairs and changed into his HBT (Hostage Barricade Team) gear.

VALDEZ heard KOLGOVAS have a one-sided conversation with himself, because VALDEZ knew there was no phone in the apartment. VALDEZ also heard what sounded like furniture moving around the apartment. Rivlin and CCSPD Officer Contreras then arrived. VALDEZ and Rivlin maintained their position on the stairs adjacent to KOLGOVAS' apartment. GPD Officers Eastman and Cholewinski were on the landing just below VALDEZ and Rivlin and Contreras was on the stairs below Eastman and Cholewinski. Rivlin continued the conversation with KOLGOVAS with much of the same response. VALDEZ then heard a sound that sounded like KOLGOVAS loading a gun.

KOLGOVAS then opened his door, took a step outside of his apartment, turned around, and went back inside. VALDEZ stated he did not hear KOLGOVAS say anything and could not see KOLGOVAS because VALDEZ was behind the ballistic shield. VALDEZ said he heard Rivlin yell, "drop the sword" several times. Rivlin then told Valdez, Contreras, Eastman, and Cholewinski that Rivlin would "go taser." Rivlin told Eastman and Cholewinski to "go hands" which meant they would handcuff KOLGOVAS. Rivlin then told Contreras "to go lethal" which meant using lethal cover. VALDEZ told R/As that means if the subject threatens the officers' life, then the officers' use of force could be escalated to deadly force. VALDEZ advised to R/As that all officers on scene were familiar with the terms Rivlin used.

As soon as the officers agreed to the plan, KOLGOVAS opened the door again. KOLGOVAS again took one step outside of the apartment and VALDEZ lost sight of KOLGOVAS because VALDEZ was offset with the window of the ballistic shield. VALDEZ heard Rivlin and the others on scene yell, "drop the sword" several times. VALDEZ saw Rivlin fire his taser and at the same time heard a loud bang, which VALDEZ learned later was Contreras shooting his weapon. VALDEZ then heard Rivlin order the officers to enter the apartment. VALDEZ entered and saw KOLGOVAS on the floor face down with his hands underneath him. VALDEZ grabbed KOLGOVAS' hands and handcuffed KOLGOVAS. VALDEZ stated KOLGOVAS did not make any statements.

VALDEZ added that he did not cut the clothes of KOLGOVAS, nor did he see the sword. VALDEZ also did not render any aid to KOLGOVAS.

RIVLIN has been a police officer for approximately 20 years and is currently assigned to the CCSPD Gang Crime Investigations Team.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00pm, RIVLIN was at CCSPD sub-post located at 9511 W. Harrison with his partner Roger Valdez. RIVLIN described the call as a domestic violence call. RIVLIN received additional information from the dispatcher and learned that the male subject was armed with a sword. RIVLIN, who is a member of the HBT (Hostage Barricade Team), thought that the call might escalate to a callout for HBT. RIVLIN and Valdez drove in the same vehicle to the address in question. While en route, RIVLIN heard over his police radio that the male subject may be armed with a gun.

Upon arrival, RIVLIN saw CCSPD units as well as Glenview Police Department (GPD) officers on scene in front of the apartment building. RIVLIN parked his vehicle and put on his bullet proof vest. RIVLIN and Valdez walked up the stairs and approached the apartment of the "domestic" call. RIVLIN and Valdez shared the ballistic shield as they maintained their position at the top of the stairs. RIVLIN knocked on the door and announced his office. RIVLIN heard a male voice, later identified as KOLGOVAS, from the other side of the door yell, "fuck you." RIVLIN again stated he was the police and for KOLGOVAS to open the door. RIVLIN then heard KOLGOVAS say, "fuck you, I am going to kill you, and then kill myself." RIVLIN then went down the stairs and requested, through his chain of command, for HBT to be activated, that there may be a barricaded subject situation. RIVLIN directed Valdez to "hold the stairwell" while he changed into his HBT gear.

RIVLIN re-entered the hallway and at that time CCSPD Contreras arrived. RIVLIN directed Contreras to change into his HBT gear, in which Contreras complied. RIVLIN and Valdez maintained their position on the stairs adjacent to KOLGOVAS' apartment. RIVLIN stated that GPD Officers Eastman and Cholewinski were on the landing just below RIVLIN and Valdez. RIVLIN continued the conversation with KOLGOVAS with much of the same response. After some time, RIVLIN received a cell phone that he learned was KOLGOVAS' and set it outside KOLGOVAS' door. RIVLIN stated to R/As that he heard KOLGOVAS having a one-sided conversation, and now realized that KOLGOVAS was talking to himself. RIVLIN pleaded with KOLGOVAS to open the door and take the phone to open the lines of communication. KOLGOVAS stated "do you think I'm stupid, if you touch the door, I will kill you." RIVLIN then heard a sound that sounded like a gun racking against its own slide, which RIVLIN thought was KOLGOVAS loading a gun. RIVLIN saw that Contreras had returned and was positioned on the stairwell below Eastman and Cholewinski.

KOLGOVAS then opened his door, took a step outside of his apartment, turned around, and went back inside. RIVLIN stated he did not hear KOLGOVAS say anything. RIVLIN stated he saw a large "samurai" type sword in KOLGOVAS' right hand. RIVLIN then devised a plan. RIVLIN told Valdez, Contreras, Eastman, and Cholewinski that RIVLIN would "go taser" which meant that RIVLIN would use less than lethal force to restrain KOLGOVAS. RIVLIN directed Eastman and Cholewinski to "go hands" which RIVLIN stated to R/As meant when KOLGOVAS is subdued, the two would restrain KOLGOVAS. RIVLIN then explained to Contreras "to go lethal" which RIVLIN described to R/As that it does not mean use lethal force. "Going lethal" means using lethal cover which RIVLIN described that if less than lethal means of restraining the subject do not work, and the subject threatens the officers' life, then the officers' use of force could be escalated to deadly force. RIVLIN advised to R/As that Eastman, Cholewinski, Valdez, and Contreras are all familiar with the above mentioned terminology.

As soon as RIVLIN and the rest of the officers agreed to the plan, KOLGOVAS opened the door again. KOLGOVAS again took one step outside of the apartment and RIVLIN saw the sword in KOLGOVAS' right hand. RIVLIN yelled at KOLGOVAS repeatedly to "drop the sword, drop the sword." RIVLIN stated that KOLGOVAS began to raise the sword upward and RIVLIN, in fear of his life, fired his taser at KOLGOVAS' mid section. RIVLIN stated at the same time, he heard Contreras fire his weapon. KOLGOVAS turned slightly and fell into his apartment and landed on his stomach. RIVLIN stated KOLGOVAS' arms were underneath his stomach. RIVLIN yelled "go go go" and Valdez entered the apartment and handcuffed KOLGOVAS. RIVLIN rolled KOLGOVAS over and patted KOLGOVAS down for weapons. RIVLIN stated KOLGOVAS did not make any statements.

RIVLIN then took Contreras' weapon and relinquished it to one of his supervisors. RIVLIN added that he was committed to the taser, and if he had been holding a gun, RIVLIN would have shot KOLGOVAS.

On January 28, 2010, at approximately 3:11 p.m., Special Agent (S/A) Surz #4951, and I, S/A Montes #522 interviewed Glenview Police Officer JEFF A. CHOLEWINSKI (M/W, DOB: [REDACTED]) #117 at ISP District Chicago Headquarters. CHOLEWINSKI was a witness to the officer-involved shooting of Kolgovas. Also present in the interview was CHOLEWINSKI's legal representative, Robert McCabe. CHOLEWINSKI was not ordered by his superiors to speak with me and related, in summary, the following information:

CHOLEWINSKI has been a police officer for approximately twenty-one (21) years. He is currently assigned as patrol officer for the Glenview Police Department (GPD). CHOLEWINSKI has also been a member of the Northern Illinois Police Alarm System (NIPAS) for approximately ten (10) years.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 pm, CHOLEWINSKI was assigned to routine patrol in uniform and in a marked squad car when he received a dispatch to assist CCSPD with a domestic call. CHOLEWINSKI learned from GPD dispatch that the subject, later identified as Kolgovas, was barricaded in his apartment at the Twelve Oaks Apartments in unincorporated Northbrook, Illinois. CHOLEWINSKI responded to the call.

Upon arrival CHOLEWINSKI met with GPD officer Eastman, CCSPD officer Rivlin, and CCSPD officer Valdez. Also on scene were two (2) CCSPD uniform officers. The group was briefed by the uniform officers of the situation. CHOLEWINSKI learned that Kolgovas was involved in a domestic violence altercation wherein the victim ran out of the apartment and called the police. The CCSPD officers told CHOLEWINSKI that Kolgovas had a sword.

CHOLEWINSKI and Eastman retrieved ballistic shields from the trunk of their squad cars. Eastman gave his shield to Valdez and group entered the apartment building. The group evacuated the occupants of the building before making contact with Kolgovas. CHOLEWINSKI stated that Kolgovas's apartment was on the third floor and the first apartment next to the staircase. Rivlin and Valdez shared a ballistic shield and took a position a few stairs below the third floor landing next to Kolgovas's door. CHOLEWINSKI and Eastman shared a ballistic shield and positioned themselves on the first landing below Rivlin and Valdez.

CHOLEWINSKI heard Rivlin attempt to speak with Kolgovas through the door. CHOLEWINSKI heard Kolgovas say, "Fuck you! I'm going to kill you and myself!" CHOLEWINSKI said Rivlin continued to speak with Kolgovas to try calm him down.

During the time they were trying to speak to Kolgovas, CCSPD officer Contreras arrived on scene and took a position next to CHOLEWINSKI and Eastman. While Rivlin was trying to speak with Kolgovas, CHOLEWINSKI heard a "action racking" sound similar to that of someone loading a firearm. Rivlin broadcasted the information over his radio to warn other officers.

CHOLEWINSKI said he left his position in an attempt to speak with Kolgovas's daughter who was outside in a squad car. CHOLEWINSKI learned that Kolgovas once owned a gun, but that a friend of Kolgovas took it away from him. Kolgovas's daughter did not know if the friend had given Kolgovas his gun back or if Kolgovas had any additional firearms. CHOLEWINSKI learned that Kolgovas's daughter had his cell phone and that Kolgovas did not have a telephone in his apartment. CHOLEWINSKI took Kolgovas's cell phone and inputted his cell phone number in Kolgovas's phone. CHOLEWINSKI returned to the apartment and gave the cell phone to Rivlin. Rivlin put the cell phone next to Kolgovas's door and CHOLEWINSKI returned to his position next to Eastman.

CHOLEWINSKI heard more noise coming from the apartment and CHOLEWINSKI believed Kolgovas may have moved furniture to barricade the door. Suddenly, Kolgovas's door opened and CHOLEWINSKI saw Kolgovas standing near the door holding a slightly bent sword by his side. CHOLEWINSKI stated he had his rifle in a "low ready" position and not pointed at Kolgovas because Rivlin and Valdez were in his line of sight. CHOLEWINSKI stated that they ordered Kolgovas to drop the sword. Kolgovas said, "Fuck you!" and closed the door.

Kolgovas told the officers through the door that he was not coming out of his apartment. Rivlin began to reinitiate a dialogue with Kolgovas. CHOLEWINSKI said the group devised a plan. They decided that if Kolgovas opened the door again, Rivlin would use his Taser to subdue Kolgovas. Contreras and CHOLEWINSKI would cover Rivlin. Valdez and Eastman would subsequently handcuff Kolgovas.

Kolgovas's door opened again and CHOLEWINSKI heard Rivlin yell, "put the sword down!" CHOLEWINSKI said he could only see the left side of Kolgovas from his vantage point. CHOLEWINSKI saw Kolgovas pass through the threshold of the doorway and saw Rivlin fire his Taser. Almost simultaneously, CHOLEWINSKI heard a single gun shot.

Kolgovas fell inside his apartment and the group of officers rushed into the apartment. CHOLEWINSKI saw the taser wires tangled on Kolgovas as Valdez handcuffed Kolgovas. CHOLEWINSKI and Valdez then "cleared" the apartment to ensure no one else was inside. CHOLEWINSKI stated that he heard Kolgovas breathing and called for medical assistance. CHOLEWINSKI turned Kolgovas over to his side and observed a single gunshot on Kolgovas's chest. CHOLEWINSKI saw that Rivlin's Taser wire were still connected to the cartridge and disconnected the cartridge from Rivlin's Taser. CHOLEWINSKI dropped the Taser cartridge on the livingroom floor. Glenview Fire Department (GFD) arrived within a couple of minutes to treat Kolgovas. CHOLEWINSKI

The officers told them that they responded to the apartment for a well-being check and were met by a subject, later identified as Kolgozas, who displayed a sword at them. The CCSPD officers retreated and requested additional assistance. EASTMAN stated that Kolgozas's daughter was in the squad car of one of the CCSPD officers.

As EASTMAN and Cholewinski removed ballistic shields from their squad cars, CCSPD officers Rivlin and Valdez arrived on scene. Rivlin called his supervisor and advised him that they may have a Hostage Barricade Team (HBT) situation. Rivlin left the building and changed into his HBT uniform. The group of officers evacuated the tenants of the building. They entered the apartment and Rivlin attempted to speak with Kolgovas.

Kolgovas's apartment was on the top floor of a two-story apartment building. Kolgovas's door was the first door from the staircase. Valdez and Rivlin shared a ballistic shield and were positioned on the stairs next to Kolgovas's door. EASTMAN and Cholewinski shared a shield and were positioned on the landing below Rivlin and Valdez.

EASTMAN stated that Rivlin was trying to calm Kolgovas and persuade him to cooperate with the officers. EASTMAN said it was hard to understand what Kolgovas was saying, but distinctly heard him say again that Kolgovas was going to kill them and himself. Cholewinski left the apartment briefly to speak with Kolgovas's daughter. EASTMAN received information that Kolgovas had a revoked Illinois Firearm Owner's Identification (FOID) card. EASTMAN also learned from Cholewinski that Kolgovas once owned a gun and was not sure if Kolgovas was in possession of any more guns.

Cholewinski returned to the apartment corridor and joined EASTMAN behind the shield. EASTMAN heard loud, rustling noises coming from Kolgovas's apartment. EASTMAN heard a noise that made EASTMAN believe Kolgovas chambered a round into a gun. Rivlin placed a cell phone near the front door and asked Kolgovas to call him. Kolgovas told them to leave and that he didn't want them there.

CCSPD Contreras arrived to the apartment corridor. Contreras was briefed about Kolgovas by the group of officers. Contreras changed into his HBT uniform and took a position next to EASTMAN and Cholewinski. EASTMAN stated that Kolgovas suddenly opened the door wide open. EASTMAN said he couldn't see Kolgovas because Rivlin was in his line of sight. Kolgovas had the door open for a few seconds before he closed it.

EASTMAN saw Kolgovas's door crack open and then shut quickly. Rivlin was still trying to diffuse the situation and asked Kolgovas to come out of his apartment without the sword. EASTMAN said they devised a plan in case Kolgovas opened the door again. Rivlin switched from his handgun to his Taser. Cholewinski and Contreras would provide lethal cover and Valdez and EASTMAN would place Kolgovas in handcuffs.

EASTMAN stated that the door suddenly opened quickly and aggressively. EASTMAN stated that he advanced from his position towards the stairs. EASTMAN heard Rivlin say, "Let me see your hands! Drop the sword!" EASTMAN stated that Rivlin blocked his view of Kolgovas, but EASTMAN was able to see the blade of Kolgovas's sword. EASTMAN stated that he heard a single gun shot and the electric sound of a Taser. EASTMAN saw Kolgovas fall into his apartment. EASTMAN said they entered the apartment and EASTMAN saw Kolgovas laying on his stomach. EASTMAN said they called for an ambulance.

EASTMAN assisted in ensuring no one else was inside the apartment. EASTMAN did not place hands on Kolgovas, but heard someone say to be careful of the Taser wires. EASTMAN saw a sword laying next to Kolgovas inside the apartment. Medical assistance arrived within a few minutes. EASTMAN said Kolgovas made no statements while receiving medical attention.

Purpose
To document the interview of Cook County Sheriff's Police Department Officer Gary C. Contreras #306.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Cook County Sheriff's Police Department (CCSPD) responded to a domestic disturbance that escalated to a barricaded subject inside an apartment at 3221 W. Parkway Drive, Northbrook, Illinois. During the police's confrontation with the subject, later identified as ARTURAS KOLGOVAS (M/W, DOB: [REDACTED]), a CCSPD officer discharged his weapon and shot KOLGOVAS. CCSPD Lt. Rafferty requested the assistance of the Illinois State Police (ISP) Public Integrity Task Force (PITF) in the officer-involved shooting investigation.

On January 28, 2010, at approximately 12:00 pm, Special Agent (S/A) Surz # 4951 and I, (S/A) Montes #5225, interviewed CCSPD Officer Gary CONTRERAS (M/H, DOB: [REDACTED]) #306 at Illinois State Police District Chicago Headquarters. Also present was CONTRERAS's legal representative, Laura Scarry. CONTRERAS was the shooting officer in the shooting of Kolgovas. CONTRERAS told me that he was not ordered to speak to me by his superiors and wished to voluntarily provide a statement. CONTRERAS related, in summary, the following information.

CONTRERAS has been a police officer for approximately 12 years and is currently assigned to the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department Gang Crime Narcotics Unit. On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 p.m., CONTRERAS was in plain clothes in an unmarked vehicle when he heard radio traffic of a "subject with a sword". CONTRERAS stated he heard radio traffic that the subject was at the Twelve Oaks Apartments in unincorporated Northbrook and that the subject may be suicidal. CONTRERAS responded to the scene.

CONTRERAS arrived at the apartment located at 3221 W. Parkway Drive, Northbrook, Illinois and assessed the situation. A CCSPD Lieutenant told CONTRERAS that the subject had a sword and made threats to police officers. CONTRERAS saw two police officers with long guns positioned outside the apartment. CONTRERAS took his long gun and entered the apartment building. CONTRERAS entered the building and saw CCSPD Officer Rivlin in his Hostage Barricade Team (HBT) uniform. Rivlin was sharing a ballistic shield with CCSPD Officer Valdez. CONTRERAS saw two (2) Glenview Police Department (GPD) Officers later identified as GPD Officers McCabe and Eastman. The GPD officers also were also sharing a ballistic shield. CONTRERAS returned to his vehicle and put on his HBT uniform.

CONTRERAS reentered the apartment building and learned that the subject, later identified as Kolgovas, was inside an apartment on the top floor. The top floor consisted of three apartments with Kolgovas's door being the first door from the staircase. Rivlin and Valdez were sharing a ballistic shield and were positioned on the top steps leading up to Kolgovas's door. Cholewinski and Eastman were sharing a shield and positioned on the landing at the bottom of the flight of stairs below Rivlin and Valdez. CONTRERAS positioned himself next to Cholewinski and Eastman.

CONTRERAS heard Kolgovas speaking in a manner which made him (CONTRERAS) believe that Kolgovas was having a conversation with someone. CONTRERAS saw a cellular telephone laying by Kolgovas's door and learned that Kolgovas was alone inside the apartment and did not have a telephone inside his apartment. CONTRERAS heard Rivlin attempt to speak with Kolgovas and try to diffuse the situation. CONTRERAS heard Kolgovas make remarks that he was going to hurt the police officers and that he (Kolgovas) wanted to kill himself.

CONTRERAS stated he heard a metal on metal noise that made him believe Kolgovas may have "racked" a gun. CONTRERAS adjusted his position a couple of steps below the landing that Cholewinski and Eastman were standing on. CONTRERAS explained that he repositioned himself to allow himself a wider view of the doorway.

Suddenly, CONTRERAS saw Kolgovas's front door swing open. CONTRERAS saw Kolgovas standing in the door way with a blank look on his face. Kolgovas was holding a large sword by his side. The officers yelled at Kolgovas to drop the sword. Kolgovas then shut the door.

CONTRERAS stated that he had an unobstructed view of Kolgovas, but did not shoot him because he wanted to "give him (Kolgovas) a chance". CONTRERAS didn't believe that at that point his life or his partner's life was in danger.

After the door closed, Rivlin told the group that if Kolgovas opened the door again in the same manner, Rivlin would subdue Kolgovas with a Taser, CONTRERAS would maintain "lethal cover", Valdez, Eastman, and Cholewinski would place Kolgovas in handcuffs. CONTRERAS stated that "lethal cover" was a HBT term. He explained that anytime a HBT member uses a Taser there is always a second HBT member who protects the person using the Taser. CONTRERAS said the protection is done with a long rifle and the rifle is used only when the Taser is ineffective and a life is in danger.

While the police officers were formulating their plan, CONTRERAS heard Kolgovas say that he would hurt them (police) if they entered his apartment. CONTRERAS heard noise behind the Kolgovas's door and believed that Kolgovas might be preparing for their plan. Rivlin was still attempting to make contact with Kolgovas and diffuse the situation. CONTRERAS stated that he overheard radio traffic that Kolgovas may be in possession of a firearm.

CONTRERAS saw the Kolgovas's door open slightly. Rivlin had his taser and was leaning outside the shield as he spoke to Kolgovas. CONTRERAS saw Kolgovas open the door completely with the sword by his side. CONTRERAS heard Rivlin order Kolgovas to drop the sword. CONTRERAS saw Kolgovas lift his arm with the sword as his body faced Rivlin. CONTRERAS fired one (1) gun shot at Kolgovas.

CONTRERAS saw Kolgovas fall back into his apartment. The officers rushed into the apartment and saw Kolgovas laying face down with his hands underneath him. CONTRERAS maintained cover as Valdez cuffed Kolgovas and Rivlin "patted down" Kolgovas for weapons. The Glenview police officers called for an ambulance which arrived within a few minutes. Rivlin took control of the scene and asked CONTRERAS for his rifle. CONTRERAS gave Rivlin his rifle and was transported to Glenbrook Hospital. CONTRERAS stated that he was treated and released that same night.

CONTRERAS stated that he fired his weapon because he feared for Rivlin's life. CONTRERAS heard the sound of a Taser almost simultaneously as he shot. CONTRERAS stated that he used "varment" ammunition for his rifle. CONTRERAS explained that he used this type of ammunition because it was suitable for indoor shooting. The "varment" ammunition is designed to explode upon impact as opposed to the other ammunition which can penetrate doors and sheet rock walls. CONTRERAS stated that he doesn't load his rifle magazine to full capacity. This is to minimize the chance of a loading jam. CONTRERAS stated that he usually carries his rifle with one (1) round in the chamber and twenty-seven (27) rounds in the magazine.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 8:25pm, Reporting Agents (R/A) Surz and Montes interviewed Eve Kolgovaite (F/W DOB [REDACTED]) of 5800 E. Lake Drive #716, Lisle, Illinois on scene. Present were R/As and KOLGOVAITE. KOLGOVAITE stated the following in summary and not verbatim.

On January 24, 2010, KOLGOVAITE stated she went to the liquor store to buy her father, KOLGOVAS, some beer. KOLGOVAITE told R/As that for the last 6 months, KOLGOVAS "goes on drinking binges". KOLGOVAITE elaborated by saying that KOLGOVAS will remain sober for some time, and then consume a lot of beer and become violent. KOLGOVAITE also added that KOLGOVAS is a professional personal trainer at a gym in Highland Park, Illinois.

On the night of January 24, 2010, KOLGOVAITE was at KOLGOVAS' condo. KOLGOVAS was drunk and had run out of beer. KOLGOVAS wanted KOLGOVAITE to go back to the liquor store to purchase more beer. When KOLGOVAITE refused, KOLGOVAS began to throw beer cans, some full, at KOLGOVAITE. KOLGOVAITE ran from the living room to the bedroom and locked herself inside the bedroom. At that time, KOLGOVAS began punching and kicking at the bedroom door. KOLGOVAITE called her boyfriend who stated he would call the police. KOLGOVAS then forcefully opened the bedroom door and threw more beer at KOLGOVAITE, at which time KOLGOVAITE called police.

KOLGOVAITE then ran back to the living room. KOLGOVAITE stated to R/As that she "thought he was going to really hurt me" referring to KOLGOVAS. KOLGOVAITE then ran past KOLGOVAS downstairs. KOLGOVAS did not see KOLGOVAS again. As KOLGOVAITE ran out of the condo building, she was greeted by the police, who she let in the building.

R/As asked KOLGOVAITE if she witnessed the shooting between the police and KOLGOVAS. KOLGOVAITE stated no, and she had not been aware there was a shooting. KOLGOVAITE told R/As that KOLGOVAS has attempted suicide in the past by "cutting his arms" and told KOLGOVAITE earlier that day that when KOLGOVAS dies, KOLGOVAITE could "have the condo." R/As asked KOLGOVAITE if she was aware of a sword present in the condo. KOLGOVAITE stated yes, she was aware KOLGOVAS had a sword.

Investigation:

R/D was assigned by Det. Sgt. O'Donnell to respond to the above address for an investigation to a Domestic Battery / Aggravated Assault / Barricaded Subject. R/D arrived on scene at approx. 1745hrs. R/D was advised via radio that Glenview Fire was administering first aid to Arturas KOLGOVAS and that he was being transported to Lutheran General Hospital.

On 24Jan10 at approx. 1945hrs, R/D and Det. Sgt. Velez spoke with Eve KOLGOVAITE at 3221 Parkway Blvd. Eve related the following in summary and not verbatim: She was currently living with her father Arturas at his residence. Arturas had been drinking alcohol all week (since 17Jan10). Every 4-6 months he drinks alcohol heavily for a week at a time, and he did nothing else but drink alcohol. When he drinks like this, his current wife Trisha HINOJAS does not let him live with her at her residence so he stays at a condominium he owns-3221 Parkway Blvd. #31D, Northbrook IL 60062 (Northfield Twsp). No one else likes to deal with him while he is drinking, so she stays at his condominium with him. On 24Jan10, he opened a can of beer and it spilled. He became angry and told her to give him another beer. She refused and he threw the can of beer at her striking her in the back. She then ran into the bedroom and closed the door. He began kicking and punching the door while yelling at her. She then called the police. He got the door open and she hung up the phone due to the fact he does not like the police and she didn't want him to know who she was calling. He then cornered her in the bedroom and continued yelling at her. He also stated "it's time for you to let me go". He then went into the closet looking for something, and she ran out of the bedroom and out of the residence. Arturas had never acted like he was towards her before, and she was scared for her life. She then met with responding officers in front of the residence. She advised the responding officers of what occurred.

Investigation:

On 24Jan10 at approx. 2015hrs R/D spoke with P.O. Prohaska at 3221 Parkway Blvd. P.O. Prohaska related the following in summary and not verbatim: He was responding to 3221 Parkway Blvd. Northbrook Il. 60062 (Northfield Twsp) to assist P.O. Macugowski for a call of a Check for Well Being / Domestic Trouble. A female, now known as Eve KOLGOVAITE, called 911 and she said she needed the police and then the phone hung up. While in route to the address, he was also advised by Cook County Communications that a previous call for that address shows the offender Arturas [REDACTED] and that he will fight the police. He arrived on scene with P.O. Macugowski. They met with Eve in the main foyer. Eve, who was not wearing shoes or socks and was using a blanket to cover herself, related essentially the same facts she later related to R/D. P.O. Macugowski and P.O. Prohaska, dressed in full CCSPD uniform, walked up the stairway and approached the door to Arturas's residence. He knocked on the door and Arturas opened the door approx. 4 inches and it would not open any more due to the security latch on the door. He observed Arturas standing inside the residence behind the door in the opening, holding a samurai type sword in his hands, and he was yelling at them. Arturas then attempted to stab him with the sword by lunging the sword through the opening towards him. He immediately jumped back fearing Arturas was going to stab him with the sword and drew his handgun from his holster. He advised Arturas numerous times to drop the sword, which he did not. P.O. Macugowski, who was now on the stairway, advised Arturas he was going to spray him with O.C. spray. Arturas closed and locked the door. P.O. Macugowski advised Cook County Communications they now had a barricaded subject. P.O. Rivlin and P.O. Valdez arrived on scene. He secured the area; P.O. Rivlin entered the building and attempted to speak with Arturas through the closed door. He heard Arturas tell P.O. Rivlin that if someone enters, someone will die. The building was then evacuated of other residents of the building, the area was secured, and CCSPD Hostage Barricade Team was notified.

On 24Jan10 at approx. 2045hrs R/D spoke with P.O. Macugowski at 3221 Parkway Blvd. P.O. Macugowski related the following in summary and not verbatim: He was responding to 3221 Parkway Blvd. Northbrook Il. 60062 (Northfield Twsp) for a call of a Check for Well Being / Domestic Trouble. A female, now known as Eve KOLGOVAITE, called 911 and she said she needed the police and then the phone hung up. While in route to the address, he was also advised by Cook County Communications that a previous call from that address showed the offender, Arturas, as being suicidal and that he will fight the police. He arrived on scene with P.O. Prohaska. They met with Eve in the main foyer. Eve, who was not wearing shoes or socks and was using a blanket to cover herself, related essentially the same facts she later related to R/D. P.O. Macugowski and P.O. He knocked on the door and Arturas opened the door approx. 4 inches and it would not open any more due to the security latch on the door. He observed Arturas standing inside the residence behind the door in the opening. As they attempted to speak with Arturas, Arturas began yelling that he would defend his home to the end. Arturas then attempted to stab him and P.O. Prohaska by lunging a samurai type sword through the opening towards him and P.O. Prohaska numerous times. He immediately retreated to the stairs, which was out of harms way at the time. P.O. Prohaska immediately retreated to a safe distance and drew his firearm from his holster. He told Arturas numerous times to drop the sword. He then advised Arturas he would be sprayed with O.C. Arturas continued yelling at him and P.O. Prohaska and then closed the door. He heard the deadbolt on the door lock. He then notified Cook County Communications that Arturas barricaded himself in the apartment. Lt. Perciabosco, Sgt. Hannigan, P.O. Rivlin, and P.O. ### Crime Scene Report

The sheriff's office SWAT team was called for assistance. During attempts to reach a peaceful resolution to the situation, the suspect exited his apartment and walked towards two deputies who had taken up a position outside the apartment behind a ballistic shield. The suspect was still armed with the sword as he advanced on the deputies. The victim, in fear of his and his partner's life, fired one round from his rifle which struck the suspect.

Emergency first aid was administered to the suspect who was transported to a local hospital where he succumbed to his injury.

The following information includes opinions of the crime scene investigator based on observations, training, and experience.

The scene was examined, photographed, and processed for physical evidence by CSI Deel.

During the examination and processing of the scene, the following observations were made: The crime scene was a third floor apartment located within a multi-unit apartment building which was part of an apartment complex, located at the above-listed address.

The entrance to the building faced west and looked out onto a parking lot. Entry through the doors led into a foyer from which a staircase to the south led down to the lower level apartments. A second stairway on the north side of the foyer led up to a landing from which the second-level apartments were reached. On the south side of the second floor landing was a stairway that led to another landing in between the second and third floors. A stairway on the north side of this landing led up to the third floor landing. The suspect's apartment was the first apartment to the north (directly at the top of the stairs).

A discharged cartridge casing was lying on the landing for the second floor apartments at the base of the stairway leading to the landing between the second and third floors.

The doorway to the suspect's apartment was standing wide open. The doorway led from the landing into the living room of the apartment which opened to the north and west. The dining room was accessed via a large open area also just inside and to the north of the doorway at the southeast of the living room. The kitchen accessed from the northeast corner of the dining room.

Lying on the dining room floor at the northwest portion of a dining room table was a large Samurai-type sword. The blade of the sword was metal and had been bent. A wooden scabbard which appeared to be for the sword was lying on the living room floor just west of the front door into the apartment.

Crime Scene Report

Clothing was observed lying on the living room floor approximately 9'5" north of the door to the apartment. The clothing consisted of a shirt and jacket that had been combined as one. Red blood-like stains were observed on the clothing and the clothing had been cut, presumably by EMS as the suspect was treated at the scene. A gold colored wire was amid the clothing. A closer examination of the wire reveled a metal probe had penetrated the jacket. This probe and wire appeared to be from a discharged taser. Additional wire was on the floor in the area as was a plastic part that appeared to be from a discharged taser.

A sliding glass patio door opened onto a balcony on the living room's west side. The sliding door was open with the screen closed. Of note to investigators was an empty bottle of brandy lying on the floor at the open doorway and an empty beer can atop an entertainment center on the living room's south wall.

The only bedroom of the apartment was located on the north of the living room. The bedroom was accessed via small foyer with the door into the room on the bedroom's east wall at the room's southeast corner. The bedroom door was a hollow core door which was open. Damage was observed to the exterior surface of the door which appeared as though someone had tried to knock a hole through the door. Wood debris and splinters were observed on the floor of the foyer area consistent with the door having been closed at the time it was damaged.

No apparent sign of damage or disturbance was observed or noted in the bedroom. Of note to investigators in the bedroom were numerous empty cans of beer on the night tables, floor, and on the bedroom closet floor.

The bathroom was located opposite the bedroom and also accessed via the foyer. No apparent signs of damage or disturbance were observed or noted in the bathroom however an area of red blood-like staining was noted to the exterior surface of the shower curtain. Of note to investigators in the bathroom was an empty beer bottle in the trash can as well as an empty airline size bottle of brandy.

The following items of evidential value were collected, packaged and marked from the scene by CSI Deel, as indicated on the evidence receipt:

- |            |   |

| Exhibit #1 | Sealed paper bag containing discharged cartridge casing from landing. |
| Exhibit #2 | Sealed paper bag containing taser parts from living room floor.       |

To document the return of Exhibit #1 to CCSPD Ofc. Contreras.

On January 24, 2010, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Cook County Sheriff's Police Department (CCSPD) responded to a domestic disturbance that escalated to a barricaded subject inside an apartment at 3221 W. Parkway Drive, Northbrook, Illinois.
